Allouche Gallery is honored to present the first gallery showing of Sharon Stone. Opening on March 2, 2023, Shedding: Prelude at The Georgian Hotel acts as a hint of what is to come, as Shedding opens at Allouche Gallery, Los Angeles on March 14th, 2023 with a curated exhibition of Stone's portfolio. Having led and partaken in a diverse range of creative projects- writing, producing, acting, and more, we now delve into the brushstrokes and colors Sharon Stone activates on her canvases. Through these works, Sharon Stone's originality and creativity exist in harmony, both elevating one another.

Stone's paintings range from pensive figures to energized abstractions and meditative landscapes. One is easily immersed into Stone's world with a feeling of nostalgia, of sentiments familiar, washing over through viewing her work. Her landscapes transport you to places familiar yet dreamy. Elements of abstraction flow into mystifying landscapes, seen through the repetition of ominous moons and the large brushstrokes that evoke the texture of bark. Her figurative works are balanced through her subject's vulnerability and strength, each with a unique character. Within her abstractions, there is an undeniable intimacy linked to one's thoughts and the waves and patterns they form. Pay attention as one's eyes chase the painting with the same pace as thoughts fading in and out of one's mind. A cathartic meditative experience begins to envelop one from their surroundings.

An opening reception for Shedding will be held at Allouche Gallery on March 14, with an opening reception that evening, from 6 - 8:30 pm.
